

SCENE

Patriot Place
Entertainment Powerhouse

Culinary Rockstar
Guy Fieri

LOCAL CHEFS
TAKE OVER TV

Bad Boy
Steve Santagati

On the Cusp of Fall Fashion

Autumn
in New England

Fall

Lauren's Scene Stealers

Photographed by Bobby Dimazo

The Borrowed Dress

We're all guilty of buying a dress for a special occasion only to find it back in the closet never to be worn again. The Borrowed Dress in Boston's North End solves the 'wear it once' problem by renting out high end styles. By appointment only, shop a chic selection of the latest designer fashions for your next event without worrying about breaking the bank. Owner Stacy Krepelka will help you pick your perfect outfit, from little black dresses to full-length formal gowns. Ranging in sizes from 0 to 12, you're bound to look fabulous for your next event. The "wear and tear" fee, only $5 per dress, allows you to dance the night away worry free, covering any minor damages to the dress during its 3-day rental. With new inventory for every season, The Borrowed Dress is making a name for itself as it sends Bostonians and visitors off in style and in budget.

www.theborroweddress.com

Gemvara

Ever walk by a jewelry case and wish you could design your own? Now you can with Gemvara.com. Gemvara is an online custom jewelry company based in Lexington, Massachusetts that is revolutionizing jewelry shopping. A great way to make an engagement ring or wedding band all the more special, Gemvara invites customers to create one-of-a-kind pieces to suit every style and budget. Choose from a variety of gems and metals to create earrings, necklaces and rings for any occasion. One of our favorites is their customizable "brilliant bands" stackable ring collection that can help commemorate a special event and serve as a "finger version of the charm bracelet." Intimidated by the endless possibilities? Chat online with one of their on hand jewelry experts, available to answer questions or make suggestions.

www.gemvara.com

